Default Order Revoking
Resident Insurance Agent's License

This matter comes before me pursuant to a Letter of Allegation and Notice of Opportunity for Public Hearing served, as required within S.C. Code Ann. § 38-3-170 (Supp. 2000), by the State of South Carolina Department of Insurance upon Keven A Decker, by both certified mail, return receipt requested, and by regular mail on June 29, 2001.

That letter informed Decker of his right to request a public hearing upon the allegations of impropriety contained within the letter against him. The letter further warned him that failure to make a timely, written request for a hearing would result in my summary revocation of his license to do business as a resident insurance agent within the State of South Carolina. Despite that warning, Decker has failed to respond to the Department's letter. Decker has failed to provide the Department with a current address in violation of S.C. Code Ann. § 38-43-107 (supp. 2000), and the United States Postal Service returned as unclaimed the certified letter sent by the Department. On August 3, 2001, therefore, counsel for the Department filed an Affidavit of Default, and the entire matter was submitted directly to me for my summary decision based solely on the record.

The letter alleged, and I now find as fact, that while licensed to do business as a resident insurance agent within the State of South Carolina for American General Financial Group, Decker failed to turnover or satisfactorily account for $982.13 in insurance premiums collected from citizens of this State.

S.C. Code Ann. § 38-43-130 (Supp. 2000) provides the Director or his designee "may revoke or suspend an agent's license after ten day's notice...when it appears that an agent...has violated this title or any regulation promulgated by the department, or has willfully deceived or dealt unjustly with the citizens of this State." This Code Section goes on within Subsection (3) to describe "deceived or dealt unjustly with the citizens of this State" specifically to include, "failing to transmit promptly or pay all or a portion of the amount of an insurance premium when the agent...has received payment from a customer or insured."

In accordance with my findings of fact, and considering Decker's failure to avail himself of his opportunity to be heard, I now conclude, as a matter of law, that Decker violated S.C.

Code Ann. § 38-43-130 (Supp. 2000) and that his resident insurance agent's license should be revoked.

This administrative disciplinary order is a public record subject to the disclosure requirements of the State of South Carolina's, Freedom of Information Act, S.C. Code Ann. §§ 30-4-10, et seq. (1991 and Supp. 2000). Nothing contained within this administrative disciplinary order should be construed to limit or to deprive any person of any private right of action under the law. Nothing contained within this administrative disciplinary order should be construed to limit, in any manner, the criminal jurisdiction of any law enforcement or judicial officer. Nothing contained within this administrative disciplinary order should be construed to limit the statutory duty, pursuant to S.C. Code Ann. § 38-3-110(4) (Supp. 2000), of the Director of Insurance, exercised either directly or through the Department of Insurance, to "report to the Attorney General or other appropriate law enforcement officials criminal violations of the law relative to the business of insurance or the provisions of this title which he considers necessary to report."

It is, therefore, ordered that the license of Keven A. Decker to do business as a resident insurance agent within the State of South Carolina be, and is hereby, revoked, and that no license issued through the State of South Carolina Department of Insurance is to be issued to him.

It is further ordered that a copy of this order shall be transmitted to the National Association of Insurance Commissioners for distribution to its current member states and to each insurer for which Kevin A Decker is currently licensed, through the State of South Carolina Department of Insurance, as a resident insurance agent within the State of South Carolina.

This order becomes effective as of the date of my signature below.

Affidavit of Default

Personally appeared before me John B. O'Neal, III, who, being duly sworn, stated that at all times relevant to this Affidavit of Default he was the attorney representing the State of South Carolina Department of Insurance (the Department) in this administrative action. He further stated the following:

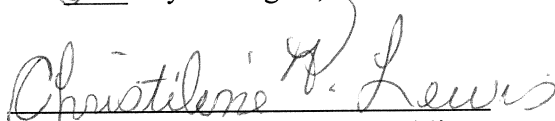

The Department served notice on Keven A. Decker at the address detailed above by a Letter of Allegation and Notice of Opportunity for a Public Hearing that the Department would request the Director of Insurance to summarily revoke her license to act as a resident insurance agent within the State of South Carolina in ten days. The Department served that notice, pursuant to S.C. Code Ann. § 38-3-170 (Supp. 2000), by "depositing it in the United States mail, postage prepaid, addressed to the last known address of the person and registered with the return receipt requested." That letter further notified Decker of his opportunity, within ten days, to request in writing a public hearing.

The United States Postal Service effected service of the notice by certified mail, return receipt requested, and by regular mail, on or about June 29, 2001. It served notice of the certified letter upon Decker on June 29, July 12, and July 15, 2001 See "Exhibit A" attached. The United States Post Office at Sumter, South Carolina then returned the certified letter to the Department, having marked it as "Unclaimed." The Notice sent via regular mail was not returned. Decker has made no request for a public hearing or any other response to the notice. The time in which to do so has expired. He is now in default.
